PROFILE

I'm highly motivated, quick to pick things up, a good team player, and meticulous. Looking for a position as an Entry-level Web Developer where I can use my technical skills while gaining important experience. My journey in web development began in 2022 after joining the kodeGo Full-stack web development Bootcamp, which kick-started my career. Since then, I've been continuously learning and taking on new projects. I'm dedicated to creating user-friendly and responsive website, ensuring they are not only good-looking but also perform well. Currently, I'm working on web applications using technologies like Wordpress, Flatsome, HTML, CSS3, Javascript, ReactJS, NodeJS, and MySQL.
